

Wake System to Synchronize

Questions Addressed

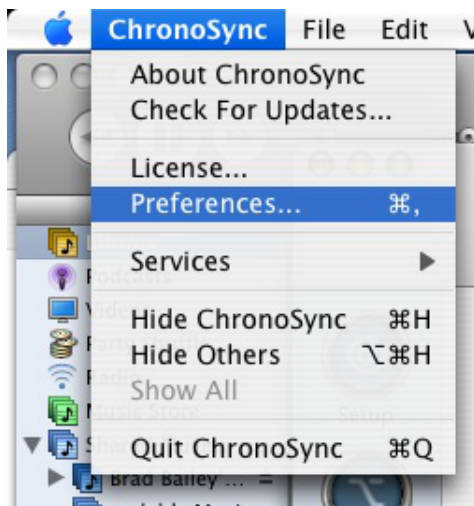

- Chronosync keeps giving me a message saying "The wake system to synchronize administrative authorization has expired" How do I fix this?

Wake System to Synchronize

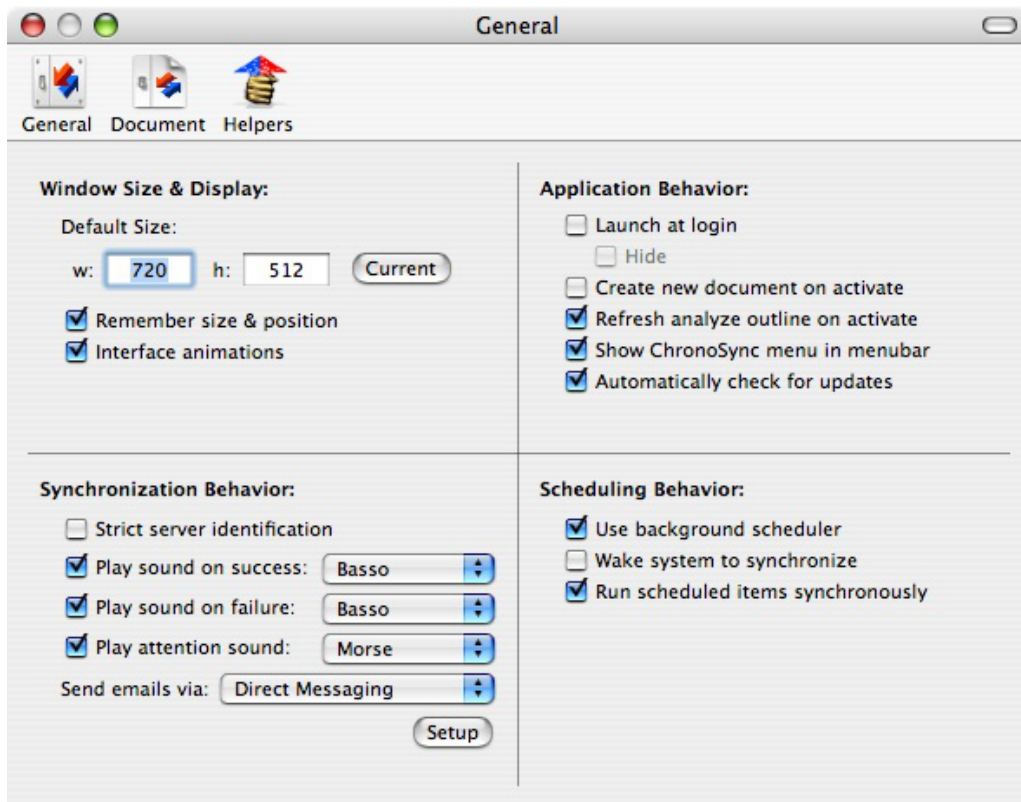

After Chronosync is upgraded the following message appears:

Open up Chronosync preferences:

In the bottom right hand corner the "Wake system to synchronize" will be unchecked. Check the box. You will have to enter your username and password to make this change take effect.
